SUMMARY

As a Motion Designer, I have a proven track record in customer service and problem-solving, thriving as an effective communicator and collaborative team player. My passion lies in producing captivating and accessible artwork that resonates with audiences and fosters meaningful connections. Beyond my professional life, I enjoy learning new languages, exploring other cultures, trying new foods, and going rucking (hiking with weights). Eager to push creative boundaries and contribute innovative ideas, I embrace growth opportunities in the dynamic realm of motion design, striving to inspire and engage viewers with every project.
